News from a Chicago Smart Community

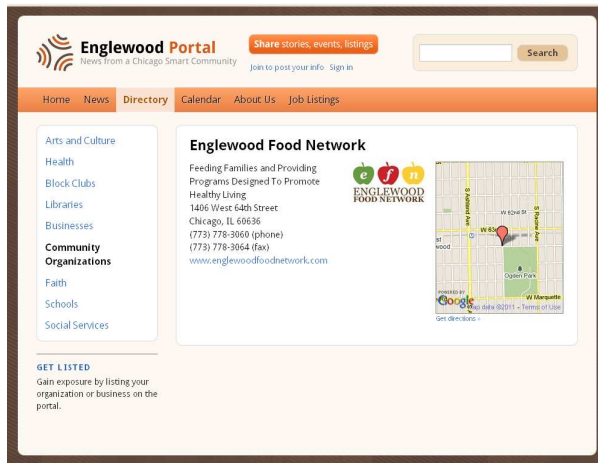

What's Going on in Englewood?

There's a lot of good going on in Englewood – but not everybody knows this. To solve this problem, Englewood residents, organizations, schools and businesses are organizing a new community website to share information with each other – and the world.

EnglewoodPortal.org is our community's home on the web. The website has a directory of organizations, schools and businesses, a calendar of community events, and stories from the neighborhood.

Joining is easy. For more information contact our Portal Manager, Rashanah Baldwin at:

rashanah@englewoodportal.org or call (773) 488-6600

List your business or organization in the directory

Share your events in the community calendar
